TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The Guildhall, situated at the top of King Street, is the council hall of the City. Here are held not only Council and civic meetings, but general public meetings of London citizens and the like. It dates from 1411, but the crypt and the old walls, with the porch, are all that remains of the original building, which was much injured by the Great Fire. The present front was built in 1868.

Dear Children Glad you arrived safely and stay at Trinity Sq ns. Your message only arrived at 9 o'clock after that we all went to Dora's she asked us to come with the boys and the Hon Jukesman was there he carries his father's business in & has for crest he looks like a pork sausage.
We all missed you much at the table & to say the latter worries more and nothing new since you left
